ABSTRACT

This is the fourth module of 10 in the German Headstart program. Each of the 2 units in the module contains objectives, exercises, and a self-evaluation quiz. In addition, there are several supplementary exercises and self-evaluations. The objective of this module is to familiarize the student with expressions for exchanging money, telling time, and the days of the week. The situations are in the money-exchange office and at the train station. (AMH)

Vocabulary 49

MODULE 4

INTRODUCTION

By now you are quite familiar with the 13 exercises or steps used to introduce the conversations at the beginning of each unit. You should also know how much work you need to become familiar with the conversations, understand the vocabulary, pronounce the words properly, and use the vocabulary yourself.

In order to allow those of you who might require less formal drill to proceed at your own pace, the conversations will henceforth only be played four times. First you will hear them at normal speed, then with pauses for you to repeat each line, then only Mike's or Jane's lines, and finally only the German's lines with pauses for you to say Mike's or Jane's lines.

By reading the detailed instructions in your "Student Guide" for Exercises 1-13, you can duplicate what you have been doing until now in those exercises. Simply rewind and stop your tape where you need to and as often as you need to. The first exercise following the conversation will still be number 14.

This module deals with two situations that you are very likely to encounter: you need to exchange money and you want to buy a train ticket. You will learn to express yourself in these situations and to understand what a German would say to you. This includes knowing the German way of telling time and the days of the week. Also, you will learn to recognize and identify German paper money and coins.

You will practice primarily with the tape. Imitate the German speakers as closely as you can, and make it a point to speak up when you are supposed to say something in German.

UNIT I

OBJECTIVES

When you complete this unit, you will be able to:

a. Exchange dollars for marks.

b. Ask for the exchange rate.*

c. Identify German coins and bills so that you can pay with German money.

d. Get German money changed into smaller units.

e. Use a short form for telling a German what you would like to have, and where you would like to go.

Turn on the tape recorder and follow the instructions given on the tape for Unit 1.

EXERCISES

IN THE MONEY EXCHANGE OFFICE

Mike: I would like to exchange dollars.

Official: For marks?

Mike: Yes. How many marks do I get for one dollar?

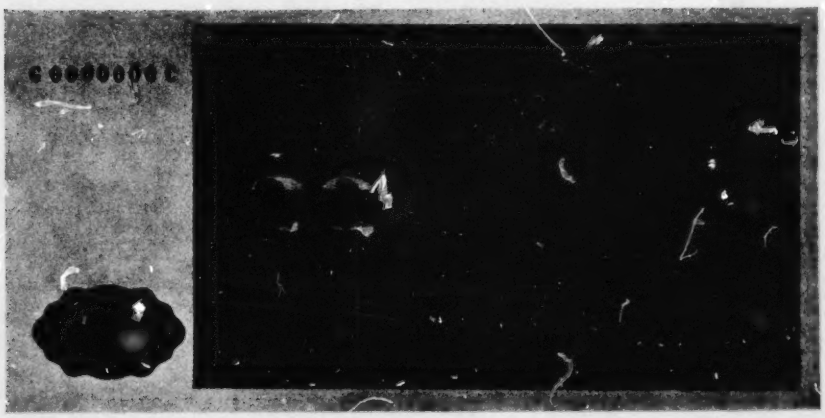
SELF-EVALUATION QUIZ

PART I.

Look at the coins and bills in your book and say in German what their amounts are. When you hear "STOP," stop speaking and listen to what you should have said. If you did not know what to say in the time provided, make a note of the question number and go on to Part II. Start your sentence with "Das ist ..." or "Das sind ..." Start the tape now.



PART II.

Lock at the amounts indicated in your book and say them aloud in German. When you hear "STOP," stop speaking and listen to what you should have said. If you did not know what to say in the time provided or if you made a mistake, make a note and check with the "Guide for Review" after you've finished the entire quiz. Start the tape now.

1. DM 4,80
2. DM 26,90
3. DM 2,25
4. DM 0,30
5. DM 1,50

PART III.

You will hear five German money expressions. Write down the amounts you hear in numbers. You may stop the tape at any point. After you finish all items, check your answers with the key. If you made a mistake, consult the "Guide for Review" after you've finished the entire quiz. Start the tape now.

PART IV.

You will hear six situations in English. The same situations are in your book. For each of these situations you will hear three German expressions on the tape. Select the German expression most appropriate to the situation by writing A, B, or C on a sheet of paper. After you finish this part of the test, check your responses with the key. If you made any mistakes, make a note of the question number and check with the "Guide for Review" after you've finished the entire quiz. Start the tape now.

1. You would like to exchange dollars. What would you say?
2. You want to know how many marks you can get for a dollar. What would you say?
3. You want to ask a person if he can change five marks. What would you say?
4. You want to ask a person if he has small change. What would you say?
5. You want to tell a person that you want to go to the money exchange office. What would you say?

6. You are in a bank and want to find out if you can exchange dollars there. What would you say?

PART V.

This part consists of five German sentences for you to translate into English. You can stop the tape at any point to write down your translation. After you finish, check your translation with the key. If you made any mistakes, make a note of the question number and consult the "Guide for Review" after you've finished this quiz. Start the tape now.

PART VI.

You will be given seven directions. Say the appropriate sentence or question in German. When you hear "STOP," stop speaking and listen to what you should have said. If you didn't know what to say in the time provided, make a note and check with the "Guide for Review." Start the tape now.

1. You have a five mark coin. Ask a German if he can change it.
2. Tell someone that you have small change.
3. Say that you want to exchange 100 dollars for marks.
4. You are in a bank. Ask a clerk if you can get dollars there.
5. Ask someone how many marks you can get for $10.
6. Ask someone if he has small change.
7. Tell someone that you would like to go to the money exchange office.

This is the end of the Self-evaluation Quiz for Unit 1. If you made no mistakes, read the objectives for Unit 2.
